TALKS

01 How a non-engineer founder runs her company's marketing on AI agents

The real stack behind The Longevity Social Club's marketing: a brand file, a coordinator agent directing four specialists, what it costs and what broke. 25 minute talk, live demo or panel.

02 Put AI to work in your business this quarter

A hands-on workshop where every attendee writes a one-page brand file and leaves with one real task done or scheduled to run on its own. 45 to 90 minutes.

03 Build a business that lets you live

Her signature keynote: her story from small-town Kentucky and how she builds without burning out, with AI for the busywork, a plan that follows her energy and her cycle, and a brain she protects on purpose.
